charitable organizations. So it would be really.... And they'd have to fit under the...you know, under the federal Constitution. So that's why, with our...we wanted to make it clear with our committee amendment that it was tighter than it was brought to us.

SENATOR JONES: How about the Salvation Army then?

SENATOR HARTNETT: If they...if they qualify for...for tax exempt under the federal government, yes, it would fit.

SENATOR JONES: Okay. One other question. You say the bankers brought this to you?

SENATOR HARTNETT: That's correct.

SENATOR JONES: I see that nobody testified for it or against it in the committee.

SENATOR HARTNETT: There was someone testi...there was a proponent from the Banking Association, yes.

SENATOR JONES: I didn't see it on the slip here, that's the rea...

SENATOR HARTNETT: It should...it should have (laugh), it should have been there.

SENATOR JONES: Okay. Well, thank you anyway. But I still am concerned about increment financing. I just don't know far-reaching it could be, and I don't know who all is going to fall under it, and who can qualify for it for these cities. So I guess I'm concerned about it right now. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Mr. Speaker and members, normally a state senator just doesn't sit around thinking about a bill and ideas and come up with these kind of things without some motivation, or without somebody else inspiring him to do such. I'd like to ask Senator Hartnett a question.
